Lijnbaansgracht, Amsterdam

The Lijnbaansgracht is a historic and charming canal in the heart of Amsterdam, named after the rope-making workshops that once lined its banks. Running parallel to the Singelgracht, it's a unique and quiet street that offers a peaceful residential atmosphere. The area combines a rich history with the convenience of modern city living. It is easily accessible by public transport, with several tram lines and the metro at nearby stations like Leidseplein and Vijzelgracht, connecting you to the rest of the city. The Lijnbaansgracht is surrounded by an abundance of amenities, including a variety of
