Valeriusstraat, Amsterdam

The Valeriusstraat is a prestigious and affluent street located in the heart of Oud-Zuid (Old South), Amsterdam's most elegant and well-heeled district. It is characterized by stately, rather monumental 19th and early 20th-century architecture, often featuring original period details like high ornamental ceilings and ensuite doors, and is designated as a municipal protected cityscape. The neighborhood is notably quiet and green, offering a harmonious blend of tranquility and luxury. It is situated in the Museum Quarter, placing it immediately close to cultural landmarks and just around the corner from
