Afroditekade, Amsterdam

The Afroditekade is an attractive, modern street known for its luxurious apartment complexes like "Het Kwartier" or "Zuidkwartier," which were often built in the architectural style of the 1930s but with modern amenities. It is situated directly on the Stadiongracht waterway, offering residents scenic views of the water and green communal courtyards. The living experience here is often described as one of peaceful tranquility despite being in a major city. Residents benefit from high-end facilities, with some complexes featuring a swimming pool, sauna, and gym, plus concierge-style services like
