

Startbaan, Amstelveen

This modern, high-quality residential apartment is located in the Keizer Karelpark district of Amstelveen. This is a family-friendly neighborhood that successfully balances a relatively quiet, green residential environment with strong accessibility. The building itself is a new construction (around 2024), known for its excellent energy efficiency. While the immediate vicinity is residential, the wider area along the Startbaan is a local sports and commercial hub, featuring the Park Startbaan tennis and padel center, as well as an OfficeZ business center. The location is highly central for the broader
