

Stuyvesantstraat, Amsterdam

Stuyvesantstraat is a charming residential street located in the De Baarsjes neighborhood of the Amsterdam West district.
The street is characterized by the Amsterdam School style, a Dutch architectural movement from the 1920s and 1930s known for its expressive brickwork and unique decorative details.
It is primarily a quiet, residential street popular with young professionals and families. Many apartments feature characteristic 1930s layouts, often including balconies or small city gardens.
