

Felix de Nobelhof, Amstelveen

Felix de Nobelhof is a tranquil, modern residential pocket situated in the Westwijk-Noord district of Amstelveen, specifically within the Betsy Perkbuurt. Built primarily in the mid-1990s, the area is characterized by well-maintained apartment complexes and lush greenery, often featuring scenic views over local waterways. It is a highly sought-after location for those who appreciate a quiet, suburban environment that remains exceptionally well-connected to the urban core.
