

De Morgenstond, Amstelveen

De Morgenstond is characterized as a tranquil, green, and highly desirable residential area in the municipality of Amstelveen. The neighborhood is particularly popular with families and those seeking a quieter lifestyle due to its abundant parks and close proximity to the Amsterdamse Bos, a massive recreational forest offering extensive walking, cycling, and water sport opportunities. While residential in nature, De Morgenstond maintains good connections to the rest of Amstelveen and Amsterdam, with local shops and schools easily accessible. It represents an appealing blend of suburban peace
